

CLIENT CASE STUDY >>>

Delivering Project Management Expertise to Facilitate the Design and Successful, On-time Delivery of Mission-critical Initiatives

CHALLENGE

Several of our clients needed to take control of their IT-enabled investments in ways that minimized risk, improved quality, and made sure maximum value was delivered to their organizations.

Zeevo professionals leveraged their expertise in project management to deploy the precise mix of experience and skills required to manage complex projects and deliver the results clients expected for their mission-critical initiatives.

>>> APPROACH

Four pillars of Zeevo's project management approach are:

- ▶ Focusing on business benefits—to meet or exceed stakeholder expectations
- ▶ Sharing of roles and responsibilities—to meet the goals of key project participants
- ▶ Structuring a deliverable-based scope of work—to create superior outcomes
- ▶ Establishing a repeatable project governance function—to minimize risks

>>> OUTCOME

- ▶ The clients benefited from Zeevo's extensive experience in managing the design and successful delivery of complex initiatives on time and within budget, utilizing a blend of leadership, task visualization, and attention to detail
- ▶ Enabled the clients' teams to take control of projects to minimize risk, improve quality, and make sure maximum value was delivered to their organizations
- ▶ Assisted in designing, managing, and delivering mission-critical projects, ranging from pure IT work, such as systems development, enterprise application integration, and business intelligence, to more business-related initiatives, such as M&A project management office ("PMO") support

ZEEVO'S VALUE ADD

- ▶ Specialized in designing, managing, and delivering mission-critical projects where quality and performance are vital—and deadlines must be met
- ▶ Invested heavily in results-oriented management methods and tools, giving Zeevo project managers a unique advantage
- ▶ For each type of project, success depends on a balanced mix of experience, skill, leadership, and design. Zeevo project managers combine all these elements. They know how to:
 - Identify and manage risks right from the start
 - Define and manage project scope
 - Deliver project results on time and within budget
 - Ensure deliverables meet or exceed stakeholder needs
 - Deliver products of high quality
 - Deliver the benefits that justified your investment
